

AMERICANS TO WALLOP WORLD IN OLYMPIC GAMES

Pat ("Babe") McDonald, New York policeman athlete, expected by his trainer to prove individual star of Olympic games.

New World's Records Made
Since Jan. 1.

George Horine, high jump, 6 ft.
7 in.

Robert Gardner, pole vault, 13
ft. 1 in.

Abel Kiviat, 1500 metres,
3:36 4-5.

Jim Duncan, discus (7 ft. circle),
145 ft. 9 1/2 in.

Ralph Rose, right and left hand shot-put, aggregate 91 ft.
10 1/2 in.

Louis Scott, 5,000-metre race,
15:06 2-5.

There is little doubt the United States will walk away with the Olympic games this year, that it really would not be preposterous to suggest making the classic a handicap, with the American team at scratch.

All that is necessary to insure decisive victory is for the men who sail June 14, on the Finland, to keep up the wonderful pace